

Abbey Wenger (Secretary)

Abbey is a professional filmmaker, photographer, and musician specializing in composing music for film and television. She has worked in Los Angeles, Germany, and most recently back in her hometown of Bozeman for Montana State University and Montana PBS where she has collaborated with everyone from Montana ranchers and farmers on up to the White House Chief of Staff and the Ambassador to the United Nations. Abbey firmly believes that everyone has a story worth telling and enjoys the process of bringing those stories to life. When she's not behind the camera, she enjoys rock climbing, skiing, and playing with her energetic puppy, Klaus. Abbey has used her training and talent to enhance the video offerings of HOV and has been key in producing the Dog Ball and other HOV events.
