

Kitty Saylor

Kitty was born and raised in Choteau, MT. She graduated from Montana State University with a B.S. in Speech Communication and went on to earn her Ph.D. in Communication and Organizational Development from the University of Maryland. In 1994, she joined REHAU, Inc., an international polymer engineering company, at its North American Headquarters in Leesburg, Virginia. In 2006, she was promoted to CEO of REHAU North America. In this position, she maintained oversight responsibility for the 1,500 employees of REHAU's North American operations which spanned 15 sales offices, seven manufacturing facilities and three distribution centers as well as REHAU's North American Corporate Headquarters located in Leesburg, VA. Kitty retired from REHAU in June of 2012 and joined the Montana State University Alumni Foundation as Chief Executive in Residence. She currently serves as Vice President, Operations.