

Lisa Gann

Lisa is a CPA and a finance and accounting professional. She received a BS in Business Administration and a Master of Accountancy from the University of Montana. She started her career with Deloitte & Touché and spent six years in the audit practice before serving as the Senior Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer for a publicly traded company. After spending most of her career in Las Vegas, she found her way back to Montana in 2018. In addition to joining the Board of Directors for Heart of the Valley, she also serves on the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee for The Animal Foundation in Las Vegas, which is the largest single-site shelter in the nation. Lisa and husband Frank split their time between Big Sky and Las Vegas, where Frank's twin daughters Madison and Reagan live. Lisa and Frank also share their home with two "failed foster" dachshunds, Holly and Nutmeg, and lab Ruby, another rescue dog, who is proud to be a Therapy dog with Intermountain Therapy Animals.
